CHICAGO IN FEAR.

Belief that Trouble May Be in Store for To-Morrow.

Elaborate Preparations Made for the Burial of the Anarchists.

If Allowed It Will Be the Grentest Funeral Ever Seen in Chicago-Labor Organizations Promise to Turn Out in Large Numbers-A Brass Band to Play Dirges-Speakers Will Address the Crowd at the Cemetery-Anarchy in Other States.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] CHICAGO, Nov. 12 .- There is still another scene to be enacted in the Anarchist tragedy -that of the funeral to-morrow. Everybody agrees the chances for trouble when the five men are buried are tenfold greater than they were at the execution. Anarchy now is looking for revenge, and men who are so thoroughly infatuated with a principle are not likely to quietly submit to what they claim was an act of injustice and outrage. Boasts are made that the State will be made to suffer for the death of the five Anar-

To-morrow, when the bodies are lowered into the grave, wives, daughters and sweethearts will go into hysterics; sympathizers will be worked up to a frenzied state of excitement, and a clash with the police is far from improbable.

The authorities are confident that they will he able to successfully cope with any uprising which may be made, yet it is useless to disguise the fact that they feel more nervous over the outcome of to-morrow's events than they did at the jail proceeding's yesterday.

The whole order has been invited to participate punctually at noon.

The friends of the deceased will be admitted to take a last look at the corpses at their homes, and shortly after this the cortege will start from Mrs. Fischer's house, at 2 Dean street. It will stop at Mrs. Parsons's house, 785 Milwaukee avenue, where the hearse containing his coffin will take its place in the procession, and the Knights of Labor and others will fall into line and march down to Aurora Turner into line and march down to Aurora Turner

There the concourse following Spies's body will join their procession to where Lingg's and Engel's bodies lie. Then the procession will be formed with the Defense Committee at the head, followed by the Aurora Turn Verein, the Knights of Labor organizations, German Typograph-ical Union No. 9, the Carpenters Union, ical Union No. 9, the Carpenters Union, the Painter's Union, singing societies in carriages, the hearses and the families, relatives and friends in carriages.

Brass bands with muffled drums will play funeral marches while the cortége moves on to the Wells Street Depot, where a special train will take the funeral party to Waldheim Cemetery. There speeches will be made in English and German by well-known orators selected to-day by Messrs. William Holmes and William Urban.

It is determined to make this the greatest funeral ever held in Chicago, if the authorities do not prevent.

The cause of the curtailment of the bread supply was the idleness which the bakers indulged in on account of the hanging.

ANGRY PROVIDENCE ANARCHISTS.

"The People," a Newspaper, Prints an Excited Editorial-A Meeting to be Held.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] PROVIDENCE, Nov. 12.—The People, a news paper started about two years ago in the interests of the workingmen, but which has of late drifted toward anarchy. came out this morning with every column rule turned, and the whole sheet in double mourning for the Anarchists hanged in Chicago yesterday. On the title page is the cut of a man suspended from a gallows; over it the legend: "The Cross of the New Crusade," and under it, "In Hoc the New Crusade, and under it, in hoc signo Vinces;" "Though You May Destroy the Singer, You Can No'er Destroy the Song," Also, "We Mourn the Death of Free Speech, Free Assembly." "The Farce of Picking a So-called Jury, the jury a Picked, Packed, Prejudiced, Perjured Pack, Prepared for Premeditated Murder."

On the last page is a solid column of black-faced type, which reads as follows:

haver stop our protests against such proceedings by that country of which we formerly beasted our citizenamp and nativity of over haif a dozen generations, but of which we are now heartly ashamed. More on this point hereafter. D spottsm is in the air. For years the mogules of the Board of Trade lik have been youlding for a strong central government, and ever openly advocated a monarchy. In Coleago they have consummated one of the most damnably diabolical to a in history. The moneyed mosule seem bent on thoroughly proving to the wage slaves of this country that a labor reformer has no rights that they are bound to respect. They have led many to believe that the Constitution is exasperating, the Declaration of Independence a fable, our vaunted free om an iddot's boast, and the Stars and Stripes a faunting lie. Marking a seven fold greater epoch in history than the freedom of a black race, seven martyrs were condemned to die for denouncing the criminal custom of holding the millions in poverty and de radation that the few may revei in inxury. They were classed with the lowest leion. Their martyred codies were entombed.

Look out for the social eartisquake, the spiritual resurrection. It must come. The tomb cannot hold free speech. The grave cannot hide liberty. The gallows cannot choke the New Jerusalem of liberty, equality and fraternity.

erty, equality and fraternity.

There are about two hundred Anarchists here, and this notice of their intended meeting will be brought to the attention of the authorities.

ANARCHISTS TO BE REPRESSED.

The New York Police Authorities to Watch Them Sharply.

The Anarchists in this city should be on their good behavior, for hereafter they will be kept under strict police surveillance. At every meeting will be detec-

be kept under strict police surveillance. At every meeting will be detectives, who will report to Supt. Murray all incendiary speeches, and agitators whose vehemence leads them to use language "calculated to cause a breach of the peace," will be arrested and prosecuted under the same section of the code that sent Herr Most to prison.

As far as public parades and mass meetings are concerned, Superintendent Murray and President French agree that while the present law stands the police authorities are powerless to prevent them. The law provides that societies or others desiring to join in a civic or political parade shall, on filing an application at least six hours before the hour for such parade, be granted a permit. There is no discretion allowed the police in the matter, the law being mandatory.

The captains of the east side precincts where Socialists congregate, have been instructed by Superintendent Murray as to what measures to take and warned that they will be held responsible for any disorder or improper assemblages within their precincts. The police authorities believe that the Anarchists are cowed in this city, and the present intention is to keep them in complete subjection. Should they become obstreperous, they will be taught an impressive lesson promptly. The police detail at the Anarchist parade on Thursday night was so arranged by Superintendent Murray that on the slightest resistance the blue-coats, with drawn clubs, would have fallen upon the procession from each street, cutting it in pieces and dispersing the crowd.

It is reported that at the meeting of the Central Labor Union in Clarendon Hall tomorrow afternoon, a strong sympathizer with the executed Anarchists will introduce resolutions declaring the hanging a judicial murder.

The American element will hotly oppose any such resolutions, and as a result a stub-born fight is expected.

KITTY IS HER OWN MISTRESS.

DR. GOFF IS THEREFORE NOT GUILTY OF THE CHARGE OF ABDUCTION.

Bad Morals and Holds Him in $600 Ball to Answer a Charge of Grand Larceny Preferred by Kitty's Father-The Girl Greets Her "Guardian" Affectionately.

The gossips who gathered in the Stapleton Police Court this morning were treated to another very affecting scene between pretty Kitty McKernan and Dr. Cleveland W. Goff, the white-haired Brooklyn physician, who was charged with abducting her from her home on Staten Island.

Dr. Goff passed his second night on the marters. Kitty came over from the Allman House, Fourth avenue and Tenth street, and arrived at the jail at 9 o'clock. She put her face close to the bars, and the doctor's gray mustache came very close to her lips. When Policeman Goggin opened the cell door, Kitty passionately embraced the doctor and clung to him all the way to the court-house. The crowd gathered there could not at all abash her. She drew her chair close to the doctor and nestled her face on his shoulder. Throughout the hearing, which lasted two hours, the pair kept up an affectionate conversation.

on his shoulder. Inroughout the hearing, which lasted two hours, the pair kept up an affectionate conversation.

James McKernan, father of Kitty, told on the stand the story of his woes, with frequent digressions. He laid the blame of his child's ruin first on Dolores Dartmore and then on Dr. Goff. Kitty was a good girl, he said, until Dolores got her to walk in the woods at night with her male friends.

"One day," he said, "Dolores brought a two-months-old baby to my house and begged me on her knees to take care of it. I did not know who the father was, but I tried to get my child away from such surroundings. But she had become infatuated with Dr. Goff, and would not leave him, Afterwards I followed her and him to 34 East Eighth street, New York, and later to the Allman House. I know that my daughter has been living with hin."

Judge W. H. Power, for the defense, compelled Mr. McKernan to admit that Kitty was born March 12, 1879, and was therefore between eighteen and nineteen years old.

"The girl is old enough to make her choice."

"The girl is old enough to make her choice whether she will stay with her father or with Dr. Goff," said the counsel: "and the charge of abduction falls through."

Judge Vaughn said that the penal code left him no option in the matter. He dismissed the case.

Dr. Goff thought that his troubles were over, but it was not so. McKernon pressed the second complaint, and swore that after Mrs. McKernan's death Goff took a sofa, a Mrs. McKernan's death Goff took a sofa, a bed, two looking-glosses and a stove from the Winchester mansion and had them sent to 34 East Eighth street, New York. Other articles of furniture belonging to McKernan Goff had sold to parties in West Brighton.

Manager Van Clief, of the United States Express, corroborated McKernan's statement as to Goff sending the goods to New York.

Mrs. Annie Lynch swore that she paid Goff $15 for a bedstead and lounge from McKernan's house.

Dr. Goff got very excited at this testimony and said that Mrs. McKernan told him to sell the goods for the benefit of the children.

"I think your morals are very bad," said Judge Vaughn, sternly, "and I shall hold you for jury trial on this charge of larceny."

"This is an outrage!" said the doctor, fairly boiling with indignation.

Kitty threw her arms about "Guardian" and burst into a flood of tears.

He was led away to jail, and she went to her aunt's house in the village. Mrs. Lynch offered bail for Dr. Goff, but Judge Vaughn said that she would not do. He wanted security to the amount of $600 for the doctor's appearance for trial on Monday afternoon.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] IVY CITY RACE TRACE, WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—There was an agreeable change in the weather his morning, and although the wind continues to blow very cold, the sun is shining bright. The attendance, however, is small and the meeting ends with the regrets of nearly all interested that it was given, for money has certainly been lost on each of the three days. The track is in fair condition and the racing good. It began with an upset for the favorite, Jennings's unnamed Littleton-Vixen colt winning the two-year-old purse, thanks to McLaugh-lin's bard work, the favorite, Theora, never being better than fourth. Nor did the favorite being better than fourth. Nor did the favorite Barnum do any better in the second race, he finishing fourto, with Royal Arch the winner, having beat Perices out in a rush made just at the finish. The third race fell to the lavorite, Bessie June winning somewhat easily in the stretch.

The fourth race produced a grand finish, with five horses also so close up that there was less than a length between them, with Bronzomarie in the lead. The last race of the day and meeting was a pony race made or and won by Morris & Harwood's Bar Sinister, ridden by Mr. Morris. The details are as follows:

Gov. Lee Orders Troops from Lynchburg to Pocahontas.

Foreigners in the Mines Called Upon to Avenge the Anarchists.

The Mining Town Where the Trouble to Going on is Remote From Railways and the Details are Meagre-Mayor Manson and His Militia Are Harrying There on a Special Train-Both Sides Reported "Fortified and Fully Armed."

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] LYNCHBURG, Va., Nov. 12.-There is trouble at Pocahontas between desperate miners and the people, and this city is filled with wild rumors of riot and bloodshed. Telegraph facilities hereabouts are limited, and it is difficult to learn the real nature of the disturbance. But it must be exceedingly serious, for Mayor Manson and all the militia this city could get together on short notice have gone to Pocahontas to take a hand in things. They were sent there by a peremptory order from Gov. Lee. They are travelling there now by special train at the rate of fifty miles an hour.

The meagre information obtainable here is that the trouble arose over a despatch from Chicago calling upon the foreigners in the mines to avenge the death of the Anarchists. Anarchy of the demonstrative Chicago type has a strong root in the mining regions hereabouts. The men who work in the mines ar mostly ignorant immigrants from Germany, Italy and Russia, sent here by the carlcad by contractors in New York. A man's life here is just as hard as it is in the coal fields of Pennsylvania, where the m are now on strike. It takes incessant labor to ward off absolute privation.

Pocahontas, though a small and compar atively insignificant place, is largely populated by these immigrant miners, subject to very little discipline and free to shout all the Anarchistic speeches they want life and property. But the orderly and respectable people have long disliked them and have shown their hostility without stint. In s this they have been supported by the the foreigners. With this state of things the reports of serious trouble probably have good foundation. One despatch received here this afternoon says: "Both sides are fortified and armed."

TROUBLE FOR THE TRIUMVIRS.

Stockholders of the Boston Baseball Club Dissatisfied With the Management. [SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]
BOSTON, Nov. 12.—The feeling that has for some time existed among certain of the stockholders of the Boston Baseball Association that affairs have not been conducted by the managers in a manner calculated to benefit managers in a manner calculated to benefit the stockholders, has resulted in a bill in equity being filed to day in the office of the clerk of the Supreme Judicial Court of Suffolk County by John C. Haynes, Charles

C. Carey, Julian B. Hart and Frederick E.
Long, against Arthur H. Soden William H.
Conant and James K. Billings.

The plaintiffs' bill alleges that the defendants are enabled to keep themselves in office and control, and to vote themselves large salaries, the defendants, Soden and Billings, each receiving $2,500 per annum. The bill salaries, the defendants, Soden and Billings, each receiving $2,500 per annum. The bill then sets forth that the Association has prepared grounds at a large expense, and that games are played thereon at an average period of twice each week from April 1 to Nov. 1, the receipts often being as high as $8,000 per day; that there have been no dividends declared since 1882, and that Mosars. Soden and Billings have voted thenselves large salaries out of the profits as stated above, and have refused to exhibit the books of the Association to the plaintiffs.
